333 Vaughan Street, Unit 2
Winnipeg, MB R3B 3J9
Phone: (204) 453-4539
Fax: (204) 477-1881
Email: office@msha.ca

Transcript Breakdown For Registration In Speech-Language Pathology

Applicant	Date of Application
List all Colleges and Universities that you have attended (Graduate and Undergraduate)

Instructions: Please itemize your undergraduate and graduate coursework in the following four majors areas indicating the number of semester or quarter hours. Do not list Clinical Practicums on this form.

Speech-Language Pathology (Major) Coursework: A minimum of 24 semester hours or 36 quarter hours are needed. Coursework must include developmental, functional, physical and neurogenic etiologies, where applicable, in both children and adults in the following areas:

- Articulation disorders
- Language disorders in children
- Acquired aphasia
- Voice disorders; resonance disorders; fluency disorders
- Speech language disorders secondary to hearing loss

University or College	Course Number	Course Name	Semester Hours	Quarter Hours

Audiology (Minor) Coursework: A minimum of 6 semester hours or 9 quarter hours are needed specific to the assessment of auditory disorders (children and adults) and (re)habilitative procedures with hard of hearing and deaf children and adults.

University or College	Course Number	Course Name	Semester Hours	Quarter Hours

Basic Coursework: A minimum of 12 semester hours or 18 quarter hours are needed specific to the normal development and processes underlying speech, language, hearing and communicative functioning.

- Anatomical, physiological and neurological basis of speech, language and hearing functioning
- Perceptual processes of speech, language and hearing
- Fundamental information pertaining to speech and language processes such as linguistics, psycholinguistics, normal acquisition of speech, language and hearing
- Psychological and social aspects of human development
- Basic principles and methods involved in conducting research in human behavior

University or College	Course Number	Course Name	Semester Hours	Quarter Hours

Related Coursework: A minimum of 12 semester hours or 18 quarter hours are needed specific to related fields such as psychology or education that are pertinent to communication disorders. This must include coursework in at least one of the following areas:

- Theories of learning and behavior that have application to communication disorders, e.g. verbal learning, behavior modification, neuropsychology
- Study of personality development, abnormal behavior / development
- Study of development and education of special populations, psychometric evaluation, school psychology
- Counseling and interviewing in the helping professions

University or College	Course Number	Course Name	Semester Hours	Quarter Hours